

OUR COCKTAILS

THE CREAM OF EUROPEAN CULTURE FROM THE PAST & OUR NEIGHBORHOOD*
INSPIRES OUR COLLECTION OF CLASSIC BRITISH COCKTAILS OF TOMORROW.

COCKTAILS MARKED  ARE AVAILABLE WITH OR WITHOUT ALCOHOL.

EASTERN DAWN £ 12.00

Fair vodka infused with, jasmine, peach, honey and lemon, Charles Heidsieck Champagne, garnished with a peach bitters spray and lemon twist

Inspired by the birthplace of internationally renowned composer Benjamin Britten*, this cocktail wouldn't be out of place at a classical concert in the Snape Maltings.

MAESTRO £ 10.00

Calvados Dupont Hors D'Age liqueur, figaro liqueur, vanilla syrup, lemon juice, apple balsamic vinegar glaze garnished with a caramelised apple

Just like Muzio Clementi*, one of the founders of the Royal Philhamonic Society, this cocktail will play a piano concerto on your taste buds.

MOUSETRAP £ 9.50

Grappa, lime juice, Marendry, Solerno, Amarena juice, chocolate bitters garnished with a chocolate stick and cherry

This mysterious cocktail is inspired by Agatha Christie*, but which mixologist devised it?! Don't tell anyone if you find out!

CURTAIN UP! £ 9.75

Maker's Mark 46, Italicus, Campari, Cocchi Amaro vermouth, all ingredients in the barrel, barrel washed with Barollo garnish with orange twist

This would have been the perfect drink for George Alexander* to share with his good friend Oscar Wilde after a performance of Lady Windermere's Fan.

SAINT SUZANNE £ 10.00

Sipsmith gin, Suze, St Germain liquor, lime juice, Luxardo Maraschino, celery syrup, topped with Franklin&Sons tonic water, celery bitter (Ce)

Pablo Picasso, who's work can be seen at the V&A Museum*, depicted a bottle of Suze in his collage Verre et Bouteille de Suze. Introducing the cocktail of a saint.

DELORES £ 9.75

Pampero Blanco, Licor Beirao, mango puree, fresh lime, black pepper syrup, Greek parsley, Franklin&Sons soda water garnished with a lime twist, parsley and pepper

Novelist Ivy Compton-Burnett* liked to keep a low profile, but would have enjoyed this flamboyant cocktail.

HUCK FINN £ 10.00

Portobello gin, Briottet Manzana Verde, Italicus, lemon juice, fresh mint, Franklin&Sons tonic water, prosecco garnished with frozen watermelon, mint and edible flower (Mu, Ce)

A lovely refreshing cocktail which would have put Mark Twain* in the mood for writing the sequel to Tom Sawyer's Adventures.

KING TUT £ 9.50

Chase smoked vodka, Bloody Mary mix of fresh tomatoes, chillis and celery, avocado, horseradish, Worcester sauce, parsley, dill and spices garnish with chillis, celery, cucumber and basil (Ce)

After discovering the tomb of Tutankhamun, Harold Carter* would have definitely appreciated this cocktail!

OOH MATRON! £ 9.75

Disaronno Amaretto, black trumpet mushroom syrup, lemon juice, Roots Mastiha, egg white, Yakima red beer garnished with dried trumpet mushroom and lemon oil (E)

One general said of Maud McCarthy*, matron-in-chief in WW1: "She's perfectly splendid, she's wonderful ... she's a soldier! ... the woman's a genius." She probably would've used this as a medicine!

FINISHING TOUCH £ 9.75

La Diablada Pisco, green Chartreuse, lime juice, pineapple juice, black pepper syrup, fresh basil, egg white garnished with baby basil and pineapple powder (E)

The '20s artist, Augustus John*, painted portraits of many people, including T E Lawrence. He would have enjoyed this cocktail to get his creative juices flowing.

SUFFRAGETTE CITY with £ 9.75 without £ 6.00

(Sipsmith gin, Italicus) lime juice, blackberry, lemon, hibiscus syrup, blackberries, fresh basil leaves, Franklin&Sons tonic water

As one of the pioneers for girl power, Emmeline Pankhurst* paved the way to female equality, including enjoying a drink.

TIGGER TIME with £ 9.75 without £ 6.00

(Diplomatico Reserva fair cacao liqueur) chocolate syrup, cream of orange and lemon, garnished with shaved chocolate and orange

Everything about this cocktail would make someone spring and bounce around in joy, just like AA Milne's* character Tigger!

TROPICAL TOAD with £ 9.75 without £ 6.00

(Buffalo Trace, Benedictine) passion fruit purée, lime juice, sage leaves, vanilla syrup, Franklin&Sons ginger ale, garnished with sage leaves and edible flowers (Mu, Ce)

Kenneth Grahame* devised many lovable characters for Wind in the Willows. Mr. Toad would definitely serve this cocktail in Toad Hall.

SNOWY PEAK with £ 9.75 without £ 6.00

(Sipsmith vodka, Briottet Lychee) strawberry purée, lychee juice, lemon juice, rose sugar, garnished with cotton candy

Mountaineer, author, historian and father of Virginia Woolf, Sir Leslie Stephen* would have loved this snow-topped cocktail.

SCOUT'S HONOUR with £ 9.75 without £ 6.00

(Pampero rum, Chase sloe gin) Amarena cherry juice, lemon juice, fresh berries, mint, Green Lady sparkling tea, sugar syrup garnished with fresh berries, mint sprig and cherries

This would certainly rehydrate during a long hike with the rest of the troop or even after a long day at work! Lord Baden-Powell* would have approved.
